Conditions Of Entry

Maximum classes: Horses may be entered in a maximum of 3 classes.

Changes: The organising committee reserves the right to cancel or make alterations to any of the events on the day of competition. The organising committee reserves the right to make alterations to the prizes and prize money prior to the competition.

Draw: The draw will be posted on the board in the warm up area. All riders are required to read the draw and be ready to enter the ring when it's their turn. Riders are asked to follow the nominated draw for each event. If you are ready and warmed up, it is permissible to ride early in the draw provided those competitors before you on the draw are agreeable. (ie: show courtesy and just ask if they mind if you go earlier). However, you MUST follow the draw for ALL Jump off rounds.

Grading: Horses entered in a class lower than their current grade will automatically be placed on the draw as HC.

HC: Horses competing "Horse Concours" (HC) are allowed to compete subsequently for prizes on that day at that event in the same ring.

Dress: Dress regulations in accordance with the EA Jumping rules will apply.

In addition to these rules, the following dress regulations will apply for this particular event:

Jackets are optional

If no jacket is worn, shirts must not be sleeveless

If the shirt is long sleeved, the sleeves must be rolled down and buttoned.

Riders must wear a shirt with a collar to support a tie or ratcatcher. The tie or ratcatcher must be worn.

Polo shirts are not accepted.

Jodhpurs or breeches must be white, beige, light beige or similar in colour. Coloured jodhpurs will not be allowed (ie: blue, black, purple, patterned etc.) Riders are required to be appropriately dressed, as above, whilst walking the course as well as whilst competing.

Rules: All events are run under FEI, EA and DSJC rules. It is the sole responsibility of entrants to ensure they are aware of all relevant rules in accordance with the Article numbers listed for each class in the schedule. The organising committee will not be responsible for any errors in any printed rules within this program.

Cancellations & Refunds: Please refer to the DSJC Cancellation and Refund Policy, found on the DSJC website: www.darwinshowjumping.com.au
